

2010 HONOR TROOP AWARD

The Honor Troop Award will be presented to those troops which collect the required total of points during the camping season of 2010. The Honor Troop Award distinguishes the troops which have participated in camp wide program and which have made the most of the 2010 camping season at Camp NoBeBoSco. Honor Troops are examples of Scouting at its best.

REQUIREMENTS:

Troops may collect Points as follows:

1. Daily Inspections: (One point when items 1-4 are acceptable; one additional point when all ten items are acceptable.)
2. Campfire Attendance: (Two points for each of the following campfires attended as a troop: Sunday Night Opening Campfire, Monday Night First-Year Campers' Campfire, Friday Night Closing Campfire.)
3. Attendance at Camp-wide events: (Two points for each of the following activities attended as a troop: Wednesday's Land and Water Event, Thursday's Evening Event , OA call-out)
4. SPL Attendance at daily meetings: (One point per day--Mon-Fri.)
5. Unit Leader Attendance at daily meetings: (One point per day--Sun-Fri.)
6. Campsite Improvement and/or Camp-wide Service Projects. (Maximum of 20 points as determined by the commissioner.)
7. Troop-planned Activity (i.e., Outpost, Canoe Trip, Troop Shoot, Troop Hike, Troop Swim): (Max. of ten points per activity; max. of two activities.)
8. Troop Attendance at Morning Colors and Retreat: (One point per ceremony attended--Mon-Fri.)
9. 80% of troop earns at least one merit badge or complete two skill sessions per week: (Ten points per week.)
10. Points earned for attendance at demos or placing in certain competitions and events: (i.e., Daily What's It Box, Placing at camp-wide events)

Camp reserves the right to not give a troop the Honor Troop Award due to problems with troop or other mitigating circumstances.

To Earn the Honor Troop Award:

One-Week Troops must collect at least 90 points.

Two-Week Troops must collect at least 170 points.

Troop _____ Length of Stay _____

Unit Leader _____ Campsite _____

Commissioner _____

Total points Collected by Last Friday in Camp _____

The above-mentioned troop has qualified for the 2010 Honor Troop Award.

Commissioner's signature _____